

Biographical Information

Name: Richard Joy

Position: Partner

Organization: Sierra Research, Inc.

Principal Responsibility:

Mobile source emissions analysis; and I/M program design, implementation, evaluation, and auditing

Credentials or Accomplishments:

Responsibilities have included preparing NHSDA submittals for New Jersey and Alaska; designing and performing an MA31-to-IM240 correlation test study for Massachusetts; assisting New Jersey and Massachusetts in designing required biennial program evaluations; performing an OBDII I/M evaluation study for EPA in Wisconsin; and helping implement OBDII I/M inspections in Alaska and Massachusetts. Also currently managing multi-year technical assistance contracts with the states of New Jersey and Massachusetts in support of their implementation of enhanced I/M programs.

Educational Background:

- B.A. in Chemistry from U.C. San Diego
- M.S. in Environmental Quality Sciences from University of Alaska - Fairbanks

RJoy@sierraresearch.com

916-444-6666 office